“ There are too many wonderful and fulfilled memories of my little Brother. We always seemed to act like we were fulfilling a bucket list and in a sense I suppose we were.

There are many things we didn't get around to, but I know as I get a chance to do them, Chance will be right there with me in spirit.

We survived long hot days of fishing on the Gulf of Mexico many times together, he survived the embarrassing moments he said he had as my father-in-law, Obie Atchison would compete with each other at eating crab legs. The only reason Chance was embarrassed was because Obie and I could put him in his place and he couldn't hang.

We suffered a short time away, back in 05/06 and a few hard feelings but that's what brothers do. They fight but never lose the love for one another. It only made us stronger.

People use to say we were attached at the hip, though I was always the better looking of the two of us, I don't know of another brother that could have filled those years we shared together.

Fly high my little brother til we meet again on the other side. Keep me a fishing pole handy as I will yours.

I love you and miss you,
Forever your blessed brother
