“ You will be missed dearly, the house is not the same, the deafening silence hurts my heart to no longer hear your voice. My heart is filled with love from you, the memories I shall treasure, from cooking shows to forged in fire the tv shows will never be the same. Boxing was so much fun watching how excited you and Genie would get. We watched it Sunday and we both got so excited, for Wilder won that fight for you as far as I'm concerned.
Love you dada, and I'll see you some day in the future. God's got you and you have perfect health and for that I am grateful.

“ Papa Burger, I love you more than words!! My heart is broken into pieces because you're not physically here with me anymore! You were and still are my best friend in the entire universe!! I've got some peace knowing that your with Maggar, breathing as good as you did when you were a kid, fishing and eating a fat cheeseburger. Thank you for spoiling us kids with junk food when our parents weren't around. Thank you for laughing and not getting mad when I would poop in your swimming pool as a baby. Thank you for making me laugh so many times throughout my life.

Thank you for protecting me and the rest of the family and lastly, thank you for loving me no matter what!! Your love never failed...NEVER!! I love you, Papa

Love Always & Forever,
