“ Alex I understand my own sorry comings and I just in remembrance of a beautiful soul that is with the greatest Most beautiful soul ever to live a life in these faulty bodies that were born into the faultiness he lives 33 years the same way fighting the faults and winning every time only live a hard war of an existence and being accused labeled and by his own free will having his blood spilled not just in the ground and hung on a cross but so his fight throughout his sorry 33 years that pure blood spilled over the streets the cross the tomb and its still spilling not just during his judgement from naysayers 2000 years ago but it's flowing over every human ever born and died before you especially the ones who never knew or knew and never believed but all the rest who will from the moment of your last breathe in this earth in that body that from your beautiful first breathe was not created with the intention to breathe forever or even with any promises that in any one of all the breathes you took or any one of the beautiful beats of your heart would be concrete or ever lasting but only to at some point for all of us to join you in the same end and although this body mind and heart you lived with and died in your now let's free from it and I know when this one stopped life my friend the one who overcame every cause of these bodies deaths and he has had a pure and perfect body already for your soul when you left your family friends and haters and this short life whether lived 6 months or 100 years....now you will know no sickness no sin no more pain none any more my friend!!! No crying no lies and no more death.....I vow and celebrate your life and death and I can smile because I know you are free and you'll never have to struggle with yourself or even have the stuff that this world and the war between the prince of this world and the creator of every thing have been fighting since Lucifer was sent here for whatever reasons yeshaw has for the sun and light along with the moon and night to seem as one could not exist without the other!!! Your will be remembered and loved and it don't know much but I have a feeling were will cross paths beyond our lives here but I'm some walk about beyond this world!!! Until then I vow my head light a candle in my memory of you and I'll come celebrate and put a stone where you're body will be laid to rest and ready for good reason! If you were still here I know I wouldn't have to explain that to you.... The you are not bound by that body may it rest in peace you aren't held captive by time or the clicking of clocks any more. (Never again)

“ Alex, I'm still having trouble grasping the concept and wrapping my mind around the reality of your passing! Just as you were headed down the right path this happens... I don't know the reason and am not meant to I assume its cause GOD needed a true soldier up there flying amongst and watching over us down here. I just miss you and I'm so proud of the progress you made in the short amount of time you were in recovery. I already miss the way your face lit up when you saw me and my son and how he just adored and took to you cause he don't do that for anyone! Ill always remember to never forget you! I love and miss you so much!
