“ I loved Andy so much ever since we were kids. He was always the team leader even though he was not always the oldest, because he always had the best ideas. He was always full of energy and we always wanted to do what HE was doing. He was always nice to everyone. I was a little jealous of Phyllis because after he met her, it was all about HER! He found the love of his life!!! He always gave her credit for everything good in his life. He always said that he married up! He loved his family more than his own life, always! He was a great man ! I love him very much!
