“ I haven't seen Anita in years. I met her for the first time at my ex-in-laws home, Mark & Opal Jordan. I only met her a couple of times but I remember how welcoming she made me feel. As soon as I saw the photo I instantly knew her. She is one of those people that even though it was only those few times she left a lasting impression in my life. To her family my hope and prayers are that God hold you in his arms during this difficult time and I hope that even though you dont know me may you find a bit of peace knowing how strong an influence she made in those she met even if only in passing by. May God surround you with His love. My deepest condolences to you all
