“ Artie cook Hali Phillips and Jordan pannell at Jordan's kindergarten graduation. More then anything I want my grandma to be remembered for love she had to give to this world and to all her kids and grandkids she raised and as she would tell that she was damn proud of it . She will live forever in my heart and I'll see her every day and always that granny loves me .

“ From the first time I met her in 1992, she never treated me any different than she did her own children! She has been momma artie since that day, and will always be! We have had many laughs, many talks, and even more butt chewing than I care to think about whenever she knew I was messing up! I loved her so much for those butt chewings cuz I knew she cared! I will love n miss you always beautiful lady, and will forever carry all the laughter and memory's in my heart n soul! Thank you for loving me as your own! I was very blessed to part of your family! RIP momma artie!
