“ I go way back with sister Betty and her family. I grew up with her sons Dean and Roy and went to church as a kid with sister Betty at the old Pentecostal church on Church St. when it was still standing the I attended church with her again at the Alma Full Gospel church. Some of the church members helped Dean build her home she was living in and she fixed us a meal fit for a king and she loved it. She'll have a special place in my heart forever. Sure will miss my friend.

“ Sister Betty was such a blessing and a wonderful woman of God. She was a great encouragement to our family.
