“ *Betty was such a sweet, sweet person. We enjoyed playing music with Betty and James at the bluegrass festival, nursing home and in our homes. I'm so sorry for the family's loss but happy that she is with Jesus and James. I have fond memories of them both. With sincere sympathy,

“ Aunt Betty Was a wonderful women, Lovely inside and out. She always had a smile. We told each others that we were sisters. We did a lot of shopping and oil painting together but not so much these last few years. I know that her and Uncle James are rejoicing in heaven and singing and picking their instruments. She will be greatly missed by her family and all of her friends.

“ Aunt Betty was a strong woman that loved the Lord, and lived her faith. She used her Bible for a road map. I can still hear her and Uncle James singing that song. I look forward to seeing them both in heaven some day.
