I was sad to hear the news of losing Aunt Billie. I have many affectionate memories of the summer I spent with her and Uncle Joe when, at age 15, I had my first real job as a waitress at Uncle Francis's restaurant. She was kind, generous, warm, supportive and understanding-- at the same time I had a lot of freedom and independence. it was fun to be part of the big family of girls and to hear Uncle Joe's schemes and dreams of growing a motel business. On the site of their new house was the foundation of Grandma's old house I'd remembered as a young child. Thank you for these memories. My condolences to Linda, Kim, Joanne and Patty. It is hard to lose your mother. I am holding her and all of you in my heart. all my love, cousin Diana
