“ I remember when Brandi was born I went to see her in Fayetteville, she was absolutely beautiful. Brandi was so full of life was a great mom and a wonderful nurse. She cared for my parents in the nursing home and no matter how tired and stressed she might have been. She always had a loving, caring attitude, and that beautiful smile she definitely will be missed but knowing that she met Jesus in the middle of the night, and now is with him in heaven, being her loving and caring self, and sharing that beautiful smile will be of comfort for Candi and all the family. I hope you will draw strength and a sense of peace that only God can provide. I love you and will continue to pray.
