“ I will always remember going to yard sales with Aunt Brenda when I was younger. Loved finding a good deal with her. She was always so spunky and hip. I loved that she loved old jukeboxes. The only time I have ever attempted water skiing was with her in the boat coaching me. She was ALWAYS smiling. The first time I ever played Nintendo and Super Nintendo was at her house. She played with me. She always seemed outgoing and youthful. The more I fish for memories of her, the more I remember and miss. She was a terrific woman who had her own way of showing love and kindness. She is super missed.
