“ I remember Jean as a cousin that we always lived next to, beside of, or in front of. Granny Daughtry always children set for our mothers to work in the packing houses. Jean was always one of the good ones. Yes, granny would be setting for at least 10. Can you even imagine. Jean love to cook, bake, cross stitch, loved any kind of animal and above all love her son. They had a very close mother-son bond. She was so proud of him. And then there were those precious grandchildren that she loved beyond words. I'm so grateful that God saw fit for her to move to where Marcos was and that she had that time with him and his little family. Rest In Peace Dear Jean. Marcos always remember you and your family was her world.
