*Jacquie & Family,
Our hearts are full with sorrow for you all.
Charlie as we affectionately called him when we worked at Cove Point.
There has never been a more laid back and tempered man. Charlie was a humble soul and taught each of us a valuable lesson in humility after suffering an unfortunate paralysis.
Heaven is well represented by another Proud Marine.
Our Love and Prayers are with you knowing that your family will carry you through the loss of this great man.
