“ Nearly all my memories of growing up in Coal Hill include Cheryl. We were across-the-road neighbors and second cousins once removed. One or the other of us would often stand near the road and holler for the other to come outside. I will always remember hearing Cheryl holler, “Jeanie, can you come over?” Although we didn’t see each other often as adults, I will always love her.

“ I have such great memories of my cousin, Cheryl, as well as her sister, Kim. They were taken from us way too soon. I regret that, due to time and distance, I can’t attend Cheryl’s visitation and funeral, but we will be sending love and healing to the entire family. ❤️🙏
