“ My amazing sister. It’s been almost 2 yrs since you left and I still miss you so much. Funny thing is this picture was taken during my divorce in 2022. After this I moved to Colorado and we talked about how we may never see each other again. I assured you I would stop through Ozark to say hi from time to time, I never thought you would be the one to leave me. You were my best friend in the world, we could talk about everything. Today I’m just sitting here thinking about you and how I miss your laugh. I just want to call you and tell you what’s been happening in my life. I love you so much and hope I can see you again one day. I don’t know if losing my little sister is ever supposed to get easier. I didn’t realize when I got your name tattooed on me at 18 that it would someday be a memorial for you. I’m sorry you were hurting so bad. I wish I could have healed you, I have tried to help so many times and it kills me. It’s like I told you in our message before prison, I never wanted this life for you. Love always and forever

Your big bub Ron.

“ Take my hand and run with me out of the past called yesterday
And walk with me into the future of tomorrow
Yesterday must be forgot no looking back no matter what
There's nothing there but mem'ries that bring sorrow
Yesterday is gone gone but tomorrow is forever
No more crying tears leave tracks and mem'ries find their way back
Tomorrow's waking let's journey there together
Yesterday is gone gone gone but tomorrow is forever
