“ Christy and I walked the streets of Crowder Oklahoma as children, from Kings Chair to Leaks Garage. We did our share of mischief. We would smoke cigarettes under the bridge or canal. Stole vegetables out of peoples gardens. Tried to catch snakes or any other critters at Kings chair. We found a black and white dog and colored his fur with food coloring, to disguise him, so we could keep him. He was hilarious looking in his rainbow of colors. We named him Christmas! We both moved away from Crowder, but managed to stay in touch. Christy will live forever in my childhood memories.
