“ Memories of Dan Barr from John Wolfe.

I met Dan while I was working for KANA / KGLM Radio in Anaconda, MT about 1974.

Dan and I became friends as well as coworkers. We spent time together shooting 22's and enjoying the great outdoors of Montana around Anaconda. Dan had a great sense of humor and liked playing practical jokes. I remember him saying multiple times that if he had any more children, he was going to name them Candy and Heresy Barr, they turned out to be named Brian and Kelly.

Dan moved his family to California and lived there until the late 1980's. Upon their return to Anaconda, we picked back up. I remember Dan taking many home videos of Kelly and Brian. One was Kelly singing and dancing along to "Girls Just Want to Have Fun". Our families would have dinners and game nights together.

I remember being at one of our son's flag football games and hearing sirens leaving town to the east. My wife Lorene said, "I hope that is not somebody we know"; unfortunately, it was Kelly Barr. There are not words to describe the pain, sorrow, and grief that Dan, Barb, and Brian went through. After Kelly's passing, Dan moved to Cecil, AR. With the support of extended family, he was able to start again. Dan told me how thankful and happy he was to find and marry Susan and reconnect with his daughter Mary.

Dan will always be my friend. I have faith that when life on this earth ends, we go back to meet our Savior Jesus Christ, and then we will be reunited with family and friends that passed on before us. Our spirits will live on until our resurrection.

Resurrection is a gift from the Atonement of Jesus Christ, when our spirits will be united with a perfect body and we will become immortal.

Dan, "Rest In Peace"!
