“ I also knew David from Whirlpool. In the last couple of days, when I told people that David had died, I had to call him Rooster so they would realize who he was. I learned a lot from him and he always explained things with a funny story. Eternal rest grant unto him and may the perpetual light of God's love shine upon him. Praying for the family.

“ David was a good and true friend to me, like a brother. Quick with a joke that never failed to make me laugh. When i needed his help he was there. David and his wonderful wife, Gwin, always set a place for me at their table. I will always treasure the memories of the times that David and i shared together and our many trips to Oklahoma. A reflection and tribute to a life well lived can be seen in his fine family. David will surely be missed by all who knew him. I know that i will miss him. Rest in peace

I worked with David at Whirlpool. We had many good conversations. He gave me a lot of laughs! I have an old shotgun over the mantle in my cabin that he gave me. I told him I needed an old gun that wouldn't really matter if someone stole it and, sure enough, David had "just the gun" I needed! Praying for the family.

“ Our deepest sympathies are shared with Gwin and family during this time of loss. The obituary shares David's life involvement with the communities he chose to be a part of and it certainly reflects a full and good life.

David's family, community, and work life was filled to capacity because of the love, support, and constant caregiving of his beautiful wife, Gwin.

Thank you Gwin for everything you have done to make David's life richer. May peace and love surround you and yours.

With love,
Kathy, Richard, and Aunt Marlene
