“ The one thing I remember the most about David, is how he was always smiling and was happy, happy, happy. I would run into him occasionally at the VA in Fayetteville, and this was his personality every single time I saw him.

“ Oh, David. The one thing I will never forget about you is that smile that was most usually followed by that belly laugh! I never knew you to be anything but honest and I appreciate that. I know all the family's hearts hurt right now. You will all be together again, soon and very soon!
