“ I remember fishing, family cookouts and watermelon rind wars down at the creek. I remember Christmas on the farm and the world class wrestling matches between all the cousins and our respective dads and our uncles that would ALWAYS break out after dinner and presents...sometimes during presents and Granny getting on to all of us but mostly the dads for being "to rough" on her grandsons. I remember Uncle David getting a video camera and we got the bright idea we would make our own hunting video. Everything went perfect until the deer actually showed up! We earned the nicknames TK & Mike for a while after that ordeal. I remember sleepovers with John David and the two of us harassing Joni until she beat us up or we got threatened with licks from Uncle David's belt which always had his name on the back. I can see my Uncle David clear as day in all these memories and so many more and I'm grateful for them all. You are greatly missed Uncle David!
