“ We are so sad and sorrowful to hear of your loss. He was a special young man. Denver was such a good friend to our son and so much fun to have around. When the boys were very young, we all picked blueberries at Mullberry Mountain. Prayers and thoughts of good memories to you and all his family. Bobby and Karen

“ Words cannot express the sorrow I feel for Denver's family and friends. Having worked with so many members of his family makes it more heartbreaking. May your faith in God bring you all through this sad time. Much love to this family.
