

Diana Wilson

March 22, 1951 - May 5, 2014

Diana Wilson of Ozark, AR, died Monday, May 5, 2014 in a Fort Smith hospital. Diana had an award winning career as a realtor where she earned a GRI designation and many awards for sales and volunteer service. She served ten years as Executive Director of the Ozark Area Chamber of Commerce where under her leadership many Chamber events were initiated, such as the Scholarship Golf Tournament, Chamber Televised Auction, Duck Derby, Progress Ozark and Taste of Ozark & Business Showcase, which is still in existence today. She was a graduate of the Lead Arkansas Program and was active in many community organizations and activities. She served as Alderman on the Ozark City Council, Executive Director of Main Street Van Buren, Property Survey Researcher for the Department of Arkansas Heritage, Director of Ozark Tourist Information Center, Chairman of the OACOC Tourism Committee and owner of the College Street Cafe. She was born March 22, 1951, in Los Angeles, CA to Marjorie E. Morton Royal and John B. Royal. She was preceded in death by her mother, father, two stepfathers, grandmother Doris Wells, grandfather Orson Wells and a brother Kennard Royal. Survivors include her husband Robert, son Jason, two brothers Michael W. Royal of Ozark and Aaron R. Jones of Oklahoma, two grandchildren Lily Wilson and Alek Xander Wilson both of Ozark; a niece and numerous nephews. Diana was an avid fisherman loved camping, playing bingo and had numerous hobbies. Diana was a Christian who loved living and life and she will be missed. Visitation will be at Shaffer Funeral Home from 2:00 to 4:00 pm, Sunday, May 18, 2014.

Tribute Wall

“ Diana Wilson

January 30, 2023 at 02:28 AM