

Diane Margaret Beauchamp

November 12, 2010

Diane Margaret Keller Beauchamp, who recently moved to Magazine, Arkansas, died in an accident on November 7th. A lifelong native of Louisiana, most recently in Norco, Mrs. Beauchamp and her husband of 40 years, Gary, relocated in September to be nearer to their son, Damon, daughter-in-law, Amanda Beasley Beauchamp, and granddaughter Lydia. Born in New Orleans to the late Ivan and Iva Keller, Mrs. Beauchamp grew up with a love of animals, music and the outdoors. She graduated from Destrehan High School in New Orleans and attended Soule Business College in Hammond, LA, before joining Shell Oil for what would become a 38-year career in the company's administration services. The Beauchamps were married on June 6, 1970 and moved to Laplace, Louisiana, where they had their two children: Nicole in 1977 and Damon in 1980. In addition to being a devoted wife, mother, sister, coworker and church parishioner, Mrs. Beauchamp led a spirited life pursuing many diverse interests including driving motorcycles and cars, earning a brown belt in Karate. Her husband was musically inclined and shared his talents with their son, Damon. Sometimes Mrs. Beauchamp would play along on the tambourine. The family continued to make music together even after the children were grown because they love it so. Mrs. Beauchamp is preceded in death by her parents, Ivan and Iva Keller, New Orleans, LA, and her daughter Nicole Beauchamp, New Orleans, LA. She is survived by her husband, Gary; son, Damon and his wife, Amanda, and granddaughter Lydia, Magazine, AR; and her brother, David Keller, New Orleans, LA.

Memorial Services will be held at 10:00 AM Friday, November 12th, in Booneville at The Church of Our Lady of the Assumption. The family will receive friends from 9:00 until 10:00 AM prior to the memorial service.
