“ I'm still just so devastated. Greg was the love of my life and my heart is broken. I had been very close to him the last 3-1/2 years. He brought me joy that no one could and he also pissed me off like no one could. In spite of everything, he was such a good man, there just was so much good in him. I just wish that he realized that and how happy he made people to be around him, and how much he was truly loved. He was bigger than life awesome and one in a million. My heart goes out to all of his family and friends for I truly understand the hurt and loss you are all feeling. Greg told me once that if I kept him in my heart he would always be with me..... so people, keep him in your hearts. Greg, I hope that you finally have the answers you never could get in this life and that it will give you peace. You will be so missed and you have left such a hole here. May God bless all of you and help you to get through this. Much love to all of you. Sue Harvey
