“ prayers and kind thoughts to all of Dorothy's family. As an 11 year old girl she helped her mother Emma Drummond Caselman take care of my mother Roberta Shepherd Bunton, after her mother Bertha Wood Shepherd had died in 1935. I remember Dorothy at the Bidville Decoration too and wish the family my condolences and prayers. A life well lived is a life well remembered and I know she was so very thankful and proud of her family. David Bunton, Russellville.
