

Edward Devin Rodgers

August 30, 1964 - January 18, 2025

Edward Devin Rodgers, age 60 of Ozark, Arkansas, left this earth on January 18, 2025 in Fort Smith, Arkansas surrounded by his family's unending love. He was born August 30, 1964 to Harold Edward Rodgers and Mary Ann Davis Rodgers. Devin was an Army Veteran, self-taught musician, and an incredibly talented songwriter. He loved riding and building motorcycles, fishing, shooting, hunting, and camping. If you knew Devin, you know he was an authentic, straightforward, and genuine person. He is a man of strong convictions and a soft, kind heart. You'd never have to wonder if Devin loved you, or didn't for that matter, he would always let you know. Quick witted, perseverant, and a lover of learning, there wasn't a thing Devin couldn't master. He was a man of many talents and interests but there was nothing more important to him than his family.

Devin is preceded in death by his parents.

Devin is survived by his beloved wife of 45 years, Sandra Dee Riordan Rodgers; his four beautiful children, Jacob Rodgers and wife Carly of League City, Texas, Jessica Rogers and husband Jeffrey of Hernando, Mississippi, Joelene Gambichler and husband Brian of Cecil, Arkansas, and Jarret Rodgers and wife Samantha of Monument, Colorado; and nine adoring grandchildren, Emmie Lou, Raelin, Kara, Corbin, Cameron, Orlando, Callum, Giorgio, and Kian.

Graveside service will be 2:00 P.M., Tuesday, January 21, 2025 at Highland Cemetery, Highway 64 West Commercial Street in Ozark, with Brother Michael Kirby officiating, with burial at Highland Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers will be Jacob Rodgers, Jarret Rodgers, Brian Gambichler, Jeffrey Rogers, Corbin Gambichler, and Cameron Rogers.

“ Devon will always be remembered by me. I so wish his and Stan's path hadn't been what they were but I am assured by God that they are at peace in his arms. Dennis, Stan, and Devon were all good men who loved God, their families, each other, and their motorcycles. All gone too soon but we have lasting memories of them together. My deepest love to the family.
