“ Beth was my closest friend in high school. I remember many times I slept over and enjoyed time with her and her loving family. We even babysat together for her cousin Carol. We visited her grandma together and had fun wandering through the fields and backroads. I was at her grandma’s house the day our dear friend, Kenneth Bowman died. The family was so kind and supportive. Beth had a great sense of humor and I loved her laugh. Especially when you got her giggling! I will never forget her and she will always be in my heart. ❤️ Love, Brenda McCormick Penepent 🌹
