“ Where could I start? She was a wonderful character and great friend. She loved cooking and sharing it with all of us. I remember the day she gave her life to Jesus. She threw herself at His feet and her entire life in His service. I'm so sorry for you girls and Gene but I know she is having a glorious time. Much love and prayers to you all but I'm a bit jealous. ❤️

“ Elaine was always sharing her love for the Lord. I remember a time when a few of us went to Rivertown, the waitress came over and Elaine talked to her a little and then said God has told me you need prayers. The lady had not said anything about that but she said yes I do . We all just bowed our heads and Elaine prayed. She was such an example of how we should serve the Lord. I may not be as brave as Elaine but I have tried harder since that day. Thank you God for sharing Elaine with all of us, we have been so blessed.
