

Ernest Brandenburger

October 3, 1931 - September 15, 2012

Ernest James Brandenburger, 80, of Alma, Arkansas, died Saturday, September 15, 2012 in Fort Smith. He was a Navy Veteran, Concrete Worker, a Lutheran, a Boy Scout Leader, and award winning coach. He was born October 3, 1931, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Albert and Margaret Jones Brandenburger. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, Bob and Al Brandenburger, and a sister, Lois Brandenburger. Graveside service will be held at 2:00 PM, Wednesday, September 19, 2012 at Chastain Cemetery under direction of Shaffer Funeral Home of Ozark, Arkansas. He is survived by his companion, Betty Morris; his former wife and mother of his children, Lee Brandenburger; a daughter, Theresa Mason and companion, Kenny Stallings, of Alma, Arkansas; two sons, James Brandenburger and wife, Kendra, of Dallas, Texas, and Wayland Brandenburger and wife Tena, of Fort Smith, Arkansas; thirteen grandchildren, and five great grandchildren. Honorary pallbearers are Donnie and David Mason, Joseph Brandenburger, Jason Rogers, Kenny Stallings, E. T. Moore and Chuck Lively. The family will visit with friends at 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Tuesday, September 18th, at Shaffer Funeral Home 2315 W. Commercial in Ozark. To leave an online memorial tribute, visit www.shafferfuneralhomeweb.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Ernest Brandenburger

January 30, 2023 at 02:28 AM