

Collin Francis Gioja

May 18, 1984 - October 8, 2012

Collin Francis Gioja, 28, of Clarksville, Arkansas, died, Monday, October 8, 2012 in Clarksville. He was a graduate of Arkansas Tech University with an associate degree in Mechanics and currently attending University of Arkansas Fort Smith for a CADD degree. He was an Army Veteran, served five years active duty for Army National Guard and served in Operation Enduring Freedom in Bosnia and Operation Iraqi Freedom. He was born May 18, 1984 in Vicenza, Italy to Edward and Trina Hartt Gioja. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Smith Hartt. Funeral service will be held at 10:00 AM, Friday, October 12, 2012 at Shaffer Funeral Home with Reverend Coy Doss officiating with private burial at Fort Smith National Cemetery in Fort Smith, Arkansas under the direction of Shaffer Funeral Home. He is survived by his wife, Clarissa Fisher Gioja of Clarksville; one son, James Michael Gioja of the home; his mother, Trina Dawson and husband Charles of Tulsa, Oklahoma; his father, Edward Gioja and wife Renee of Spokane, Washington; paternal grandparents Donald and Sandra Gioja of Loves Park, Illinois and Joyce Gioja of Spokane; maternal grandmother, Delores Hartt of Muldrow, Oklahoma; one brother, Andrew Gioja of Spokane; two sisters, Kelly Gioja of Spokane, and Erin Acero and husband Beto and nieces, Lilian and Scarlett of Van Buren, Arkansas; mother and father in law, Joy and Billy Mason of Ozark; one brother in law, Eli Mason of Ozark and numerous cousins, aunts and uncles. The family will visit with friends Thursday, October 11, 2012 from 6:00 – 8:00 PM, at Shaffer Funeral Home 2315 W.

Tribute Wall

“ Collin Francis Gioja

---

January 30, 2023 at 02:28 AM