“ *So sorry to hear of your family's loss. Grasha was a joy to work with. Her heart for the young people who came through the shelter always shined through. Even when she had a difficult transport, and came back telling me that she really wanted to thump that young man/or woman on the forehead, she often spent her own funds buying that child lunch. Grasha will be missed, but I will celebrate her passing because she's in paradise now with her beloved Jesus and her beloved husband. Shine on my beautiful friend.

“ Grasha, was always one of my very best friends from the first day we met, when our kiddos were small. We enjoyed the Muskogee Little Theatre, having dinner together and just hanging out. She is one of the most loyal, loving, charismatic people I will ever meet. Thank you, my friend, for just being Grasha. I love you and will forever miss you.
