“ My heart is sad, but rejoicing at the same time. Gwen and I had wonderful conversations about heaven, the Lord and her readiness to meet her Lord and Savior. I am so thankful we know where she is today and that she is no longer suffering. My heart hurts for all her friends and family who will miss that sweet smile and ornery dispositon. She was one of a kind who loved her family and her Savior and my life is better for having known her and being able to call her my Sister in Christ. I love you Gwenie. That void on your pew will never be filled.
