“ I know Helen since I can remember. So many wonderful memories at our little country Jethro church. She was a beautiful, great Christian lady. She led the choir. She had a beautiful voice. She never missed church with her family. I loved her and my church family. My deepest sympathy to all her family and friends. Love always Sherry. 🙏🙏🙏💕💕💕

I know that you—we will miss my Aunt Helen ...so much like her mom, my grandma. Feisty is one word that comes to mind when I think back on the days gone by. She's no longer singing about the "Sweet By and By". She's standing right there right now in the presence of the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. The Crystal Sea an indescribable part—just one part of Heaven. And she's not alone. Jesus Christ Himself came to bear her away to that beautiful shore. And what a Home-going. The loved ones gone before standing and waiting at the gate. Aunt Helen has been reunited with her husband, her mom and dad, countless cousins and other family members. And, no I didn't forget. My dad, her brother. Aunt Helen, tell Daddy "Hi" for me. Wish I could be there with y'all to celebrate her life and her homecoming (I know, Brenda..Ruby that you understand why, but I just wanted to let you all know how much I love you all. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
