“ My heart is heavy and grateful. I have come to know this dear cousin so well and my husband and I have had the privilege of spending very special times listening to family stories and gathering history for future generations. I am so thankful that he no longer suffers but I wish I could have had one last visit. I'm sure he knows that his and Dolores' hard work will be preserved and shared. My love to all family and Margaret. Debbie Byrd

“ My wife, daughter and I visited Jim in Arkansas last July. I was stationed with Jim on two different occasions. We hunted and fished together in our off times and had lots of other good times together. Jim could make me laugh describing an unfortunate indecent that may have happened to him. He could come up with some good one liners. We were blessed that Jim called us Christmas Eve from the Hospital and that we could visit with him in July. Our prayers are with our God Son James and his family. Everett Wallin
