

James McElroy

January 16, 1916 - August 31, 2012

Kyle McElroy, 96 of Etna, Arkansas, died Friday, August 31, 2012 in Paris. He was a retired worker for the soil conservation service and a member of the Etna Church of Christ. He was born January 16, 1916 in Wetumka Oklahoma to J.F. and Lillie Mantooth McElroy. He is preceded in death by his wife Ruth White McElroy; two brothers Enlow and Lionel McElroy and two sisters Nadine Fields and Maxine McKenzie. Funeral Service will be held at 2:00 PM, Wednesday, September 05, 2012 at Shaffer Funeral Home Chapel with A.W. Goff and Tommy Thornhill officiating with burial at Cemetery Ridge under the direction of Shaffer Funeral Home of Ozark, Arkansas. He is survived by his son Jerry McElroy and wife Charlotte of Ozark; a daughter, Janice Shumate of Paris; one sister, Cletys Holladay of Springdale, Arkansas; four grandchildren, Kelli Wheeler of Fort Smith, Duane McElroy of Rogers, Arkansas, Kerry Shumate of Russellville, Arkansas, and Mark Shumate of Mena, Arkansas; seven great grandchildren, Ross and Reid Wheeler, Cooper and Barret McElroy, Evan, Emma and Ethan Shumate. Pallbearers are Ross and Reid Wheeler, Robert and Kyle Irvin, Duane McElroy, Mark Shumate. Honorary pallbearers are the members of Etna Church of Christ, Leann Goines, Amy Edge, Amy, Wesley and Jonah Vanderheiden. The family will visit with friends from 6:00-8:00 PM Tuesday, September 04, 2012 at Shaffer Funeral Home, 2315 West Commercial, in Ozark. To leave an online memorial tribute, visit www.shafferfuneralhomeweb.com .

Tribute Wall

“ James McElroy

January 30, 2023 at 02:28 AM