“ Stan was a faithful Christian and a kind, wonderful man. He was always one of the first to arrive for worship services. He will be greatly missed by the church at Etna. We love you, Stan! Also, he attended the Ozark Senior Ctr regularly until his health began to fail. He almost always had a funny, clean joke to tell us. He enjoyed telling them and we enjoyed hearing them. He always said his daughter, Kerri, had told the jokes to him. He was also known for his kindness in helping take care of Doc McElroy in Doc's latter years. We always said Doc wouldn't have lived to be a 100 if it hadn't been for Stan. Again, he was such a kind man. This world would be a better place if there were more Stan's in it!
