“ James was a Vietnam veteran. He was a door gunner in the 1st Aviation Brigade for the US Army. He served for the good of the USA. James was a decorated veteran including the Air Medal for Heroism. James has two children Beth and Brian and four grandchildren. Unfortunately, the horrors of the Vietnam war never left James. Everyday he lived in fear and terror from what he experienced at war. This caused a strain on his family as well as many of his friendships. The best thing that comes from death is the ability to leave your physical and worldly pain behind and to be one with God and reunite with family that have gone before us. For James that was his brother Gene, father Odie, mother MaryAnn.
