“ I was so sorry to hear of Clyde's passing. He was always such a nice person. I enjoyed riding Clyde's bus and when my children started school and he was still driving, I knew they'd be in good hands.

“ James was one of my favorite customers while at Westside Bank of the Ozarks. He fought hard & overcame his illness. He loved his family very much. We talked often of his being ready To go home. He accepted Christ as his Lord & was so excited when he shared his Salvation with me.
