“ So sorry for your families loss. I never got to meet Janet in person but I have heard so many good things about her and her kind spirit. I know she will be missed by all. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family and friends as God has this beautiful angel he took from you but she is in heaven now shining down on you and watching over you!
I will donate to one of her charities in her memory. Prayers sent.

“ My favorite thing about Aunt Janet was her unapologetic sense of self, she was 100% authentic and had no care about who liked it or not. She was aunt Jenny, then aunt Janet, then aunt janis 🤪 she always reminded me of Janis Joplin who is one of my favorite artists. I'll miss her stifled laugh the most. She always tried to be so serious and often came off as brooding but if you could say or do something that she found comical, she had this little breathy snicker and you'd see the corners of her lips turn upwards in a smile. She was a very capable empath, spoke on injustice freely, and loved deeply. She will be greatly missed but I know she will never be far. She is unforgettable and was one of a kind. A beautiful soul and person inside and out.
