“ I am most sincerely sorry she is gone. This world was truly a better place just with her within it. However, I know without any doubt that she has gone before us to help prepare that place for our arrival. She was a great testimony of God's love and His sacrifice in Jesus's crucifixion and resurrection as she never shied from witnessing nor loving everyone she came in contact with every single day. I've known her since school at County Line and she's been a constant caring and joyful friend. She set the bar high for those that knew her. I pray everyone reaches for it. My love and continued prayers for the family. I will see you again, Jen. 💖

“ I loved Jennifer. I remember the first day I met her she was whistling and was so nice and jolly. When I worked at CV's she came to work every morning whistling and so friendly. I've never met anyone else like her. I will miss her forever.

“ Every time I was in CV's in Charleston and I heard someone humming a tune, I knew it was Jennifer. If she wasn't whistling while she worked, she was being friendly to those she came in contact with or going the extra mile for customers. She was blessed with a unique gift to genuinely care for others and loved doing it. You would think she didn't have a problem herself at all, but I know she did, because we all have them. I am so sorry she was sick, but she is not sick anymore. Cherish your memories and practice her qualities. We offer you our heartfelt condolences.

“ Every time I saw her at CV's in Charleston, she was often humming while she worked. If she wasn't humming, she was speaking to a friend or a customer and making them feel like their needs were most important. She was a special lady. She had a gift of loving her work and accommodating anyone around her as best she could. The world truly needs more Jennifer Crafts in it. You would never know she had a problem in the world, but in fact, she was human, and I know she had her share. I am so sorry she was sick, but she's not any more. God bless her family during this time of loss.

“ Brian, Tace and the rest of the family, I want to convey my deepest sympathy to all of you. I thought of Jennifer as family - she was the bright spot in my day any day I would see her at the store . I e known her since she was about 12-13 from my moms church - her and my sister Jennifer were the same age and hang out together at church camp . Brian I've known you since we we in high school. My heart breaks for all of you, I know too well the pain of lost loved ones. I am thankful that she is no longer suffering g and in pain , but remember that she will be with you in spirit especially at the times you need her most. I bet she's enjoying her new wings! She had a good heart and a good soul . I am thankful That I had a little Bit of her in my life - for she made imy life better with her kindness and beautiful smile ! If you do get together , let me Know I would like to honor her memory . It's no wonder the store is harps now and not cv that store wasn't the same when Jennifer was gone . I always looked forward to talking with her while I was there .
Sending my love to all Of you but especially to you Brian - you're such a good man - I e always respected you and enjoyed your company ... and you race, a good man like your dad. A good nurse and I always enjoyed working with. You . My heart breaks for your loss and for my loss of a dear friend as well. But Brian I will always consider you to be a dear friend , even though our paths rarely cross these days. I would anything to help you anytime - I gave you my number if there is anything I can do please Let me know . Sending prayers for comfort for you all,
With love and friendship friendship - sincerely. Beverly Mason

“ I have a few favorite memories of my Aunt Jennifer. All of her being very kind. She was very nice to everyone she spoke to, very polite. I remembering her encouraging all of us kids to due well in school, then in the summer take us all to go swimming. She made all of us kids feel welcome and included. I wish I could hug my aunt one more time, or her her say "Howdy" again. I will miss her terribly and my heart goes out to my cousins, Race, Katie, Jerry and Bobby, and my Uncle Bryan.
