

Jerry Wayne Childers

February 25, 2016

Jerry Wayne Childers, 69, of Ozark, Arkansas went on to be with the Lord on Thursday, February 25, 2016. He was surrounded by his children. He was an amazing father and loving friend. He was raised in Rudy and made his home in the mountains North of Ozark where he loved to live, hunt and sightsee. Jerry was employed by the Ozark School District for seventeen years before moving on to own and operate his poultry transport business. Jerry was a devout Christian and an avid outdoorsman. He loved to spend time with family and friends and spent many hours entertaining on his front porch. He lived simply but fully. He was a joker and always had a funny comeback to the many family and friends he so adored. He will be dearly missed. Jerry ran his race with endurance and has gone to see the face of the Lord. Jerry was preceded in death by his father Russell "Pete" Childers; his mother Gladys Childers; his brother Allen Childers; his sister Phyllis Seaboat; his grandson Levi Childers; his granddaughter Michelle Childers; and his great granddaughter Aurora Childers. He is survived by four sons and one daughter: Robbie McCallister, Harold McCallister and wife Eva, David Childers, Jerry Dale Childers and wife Rebecca, and Lisa Little and husband Jon, all of Ozark; four sisters: Hazel Nichols and Shirley Lingo of Ozark, Connie Nesbitt of Springdale, Arkansas, and Linda Lovelady of Booneville, Arkansas; a brother Randy Childers of Ozark; twenty-seven grandchildren; and six great grandchildren.
