“ My Mom, Betty McCartney, was married to Jerry for approximately 7 years, but they were together for a total of 23 yrs. During that time, they had a son, a beautiful baby boy - Jeremy Don McCartney. Jerry was my Step Dad. I have fond memories of riding around in his pickup truck with Momma (Betty McCartney) listening to & singing along with country songs while drinking cherry coke. Jerry was a sweet man and he was the love of Momma's Life!

“ He was my step dad for many years. I remember when he would just tell my mom, my little brother Jeremy, and me to pack a bag and let's go! We had no idea where we were going. He always made an adventure out of trips. My mom, Betty McCartney, still loves him to this day.

Jerry, thanks for the good times. Will see you soon.

“ Uncle Jerry, I was told I was mean to you when I was very little. We have all had a good laugh over me being so shy and scared of you then boom! I put dirty socks in ur face as a toddler! I dont remember doing it, but they swear I did! Thank you for taking us out to see the Turkey farms, and putting up with my ornery self! We will forever miss you!💔💔💖 much love, Gina Miller-Gabbard
