“ I remember walking through the wood's to go see all them. One time walked up on Uncle Alvin hanging up the black bear that he chased forever. Lol But Aunt JOYCE made the best sweet tea. She will be missed love you all and prayers sent.

“ Grandma Joyce welcomed me, her granddaughter-in-law from Canada, with an open heart, and I am forever thankful for having known her. She loved playing with her great-grandchildren, our little girls. Our children took some of their very first steps on the carpeted floor of her living room. Her kitchen was always full of good dishes cooked with love and care for her loved ones. We will remember her with love, always.
