“ Wow it's so hard to believe that you're gone. We were once each other's ride-or-die would do anything for the other. There was a lot of good and there was a lot of bad that neither of us can take back. Regardless of everything you'll always have a special place in my heart. I pray that you found piece and all your worries are laid to rest.

I'll always remember you when I hear the saying be still and know that I am God even though we're probably the only ones that know what that means to us.
