I fell in love with Miss Linda the first day I met her..she's the sweetest Lady.she looks so much like my Grandmother. Linda missed her husband terribly. She and I talked alot the short time I knew her.I was afraid she'd die of a broken heart... Miss Linda you will be missed sweetie. I know you are happy now right beside Mr.Wallace..Prayers for your family.. God bless

“ I know Linda will be greatly missed. She was a very sweet and special person. I remember as we were growing up we spent many many Sunday afternoons together making fudge at her house or pull Taffy at my house I will always treasure her friendship and may we meet again someday in heaven. Love you, Linda! our most sincere sympathy to the family of Linda her siblings and all her grandchildren her sons and all those who loved her.
