

Lisa Lynn Franke

December 13, 1969 - June 27, 2026

Lisa Lynn Franke was born on December 13, 1969, in Jacksonville, Arkansas to Mike and Glenda Scott. From the beginning, Lisa's smile and infectious laugh were her trademark. Lisa believed in showing up for people and that family was important. She made the effort to show up for others in meaningful ways. Above all, Lisa valued time spent with family and close friends. Mama Wells was the biggest supporter of any competition or sport her girls were involved in and could always be found cheering them on at every event.

Lisa passed away on Saturday, June 27, 2026, in Creve Coeur, Missouri.

Lisa was a Southern Baptist and believed in the power of prayer. She graduated from Arkansas Tech University with a degree in Business Administration and was well respected in her field as a senior vice president of Bureau Veritas North America. She was a member of Delta Zeta Sorority and Crew Chicago.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Mike and Glenda Scott and her grandparents, Glen and Dorothy Cunningham.

Lisa is survived by her husband, Ben Franke of Saint Louis and her twin daughters: Brooke Wells and Sydney Wells; two brothers, Patrick Scott and wife Kristen and Brad Scott and wife Amber; three stepchildren, Dominic, Anthony, and Sophia Franke; and five nieces and three nephews.
