

Lydia Brown

April 18, 1923 - June 23, 2012

Lydia M. Brown, 89, of Fort Smith, Arkansas, died Saturday, June 23, 2012 in Fort Smith. She was a retired lab technician at the Ozark Turner Memorial Hospital, attended the Van Buren, Nazarene Church and was the sole survivor of thirteen children. She was born April 18, 1923 in Cecil, Arkansas to Larkin and Erla Davis Tedford. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Austin Brown; a grandson, Michael Brown; a granddaughter, Kimberly Brown Shellito Graveside service will be held at 11:00 AM, Monday, June 25, 2012 at Gar Creek Cemetery in Ozark with Pearlie Bowman officiating, under the direction of Shaffer Funeral Home. She is survived by two sons, Paul R. Brown and wife Karin of Fort Smith and Don D. Brown and wife Sherry of Van Buren; three grandchildren, Regina Buglar, Brian and Marcus Brown and seven great grandchildren; several nieces and nephews. The family will visit with friends at 9:00 – 10:00 AM, Monday, June 25, 2012 at Shaffer Funeral Home 2315 W. Commercial in Ozark.

Tribute Wall

“ Lydia Brown

January 30, 2023 at 02:28 AM