“ The Thompson and Walker families were together often when Bob was the Assoc. Pastor at the Cavanaugh Free Will Baptist Church, Ft. Smith Ar.k.

The first time I met your mom was right after we moved to Ft. Smith, Ark. She came up to me at church, introduced herself, and said she wanted to be friends. She said she and your dad wanted to get to know us and spend time with our family. Linda was like that! I really needed a friend at this time because we did not know anyone in the church our age. Linda was such a blessing! Val you can relate to this experience.

We were all the same age and had children the same age. Christina and Val played together, Cory and Emily were about the same age. Later. Julie and Craig were born. No one wanted to be with us because together, we had too many children.

Your Mom and I desired and enjoyed the fellowship and your dad and Bob had similar likes, (golf, sports). The church had a ball league and we were together during these times. Linda and I enjoyed our time together because we had so many similar interests. We both liked to cook and many times we would combine our meals. Your family would either come to our house or we would go to theirs. Linda gave me several recipes, my favorite is her Chocolate Sheet Cake. She also had shared a great potato recipe. We spent many Sunday nights and Wed. nights after church together, especially during the summer when she was not working. Your mother hosted a baby shower at her house when Craig was born.

Val, you might remember the Christmas play I directed at Cavanaugh, "Angels and Lambs, Ladybugs and Fireflies," Well, Linda helped me put this together and was a big part of making this play successful. We had so much fun, working together in church and playing together as families! She is my best friend!

“ Steve, Valerie, Emily, and Julie,

Liz and I are just heartbroken for you all. Lynda and all of you meant so much to us while we were in Fort Smith and the great memories we had together have been coming back in waves this morning. You all were a huge part of our family. Having Lynda as such a close friend for so many years is a joy and blessing we will never forget. We share in your grief, but the closeness and love that you have for each other will provide you comfort. We love you all.
