“ Margaret Glomb was Aunt Carolyn to me, she was my Father's younger sister. Her passing was bitter sweet as she will be missed by so many, but she is now in a better place and well once again. There is not a whole lot I knew about her, wish I knew more, but I do know she was a fabulous seamstress and a fantastic quilt maker. I got to share some patterns with her and have even made a few of them also. I am sure she was a wonderful woman and loved by so many too. She raised 3 beautiful, strong women who I gladly call my cousins. RIP Aunt Carolyn, you are now all back together with your loved ones!
