TH

“ Hello Dear Friends, This scripture comes to mind at a time such as this. To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord. Mrs. Alston was blessing to me when I needed one the most. She welcomed me into her home and we became true friends very quickly! She loved Gospel Music and we sang almost every day. My 3year old little grand daughter would sometimes go with me to see Mrs. Alston. The two of them would sit on the couch and read books together. So gentle and so kind, easy to share a smile and laugh. Once I took my Sewing Machine over and she would look at fabric and put colors together for a quilt. There are so many things I remember, Most Important she Loved God !! She loved her Family and wanted Fritz to come home when it started to get dark outside. Well, today she is with her Lord , she and Fritz are home together again. This brings me joy in my heart, and I hope it does for you also!! she will be so missed!!

all my Love and prayers are with you her Family, Bill and Charlotte, Thank You so sharing your Mom with me! Traci, I thank You for also sharing and keeping me updated !!

Love in Christ, Terri Hawkins
